SECTION I: PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

LOCAL ENGAGEMENT AND ASSET DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITY

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

1) Background

Over the past decade, USAID has supported a number of programs aimed at supporting citizen engagement writ large as a pre-condition for an inclusive and democratic society. Nevertheless, many public opinion polls and analysis continue to highlight that in general there appears to be a lack of connections between CSOs, citizens, and the government in Serbia, reflecting citizen apathy towards engagement. According to a 2016 public opinion poll¹, only 17 percent of citizens feel that they themselves could solve or address problems facing their community by becoming engaged. Similarly, only 20 percent of citizens feel that civil society can influence changes. Nonetheless, many citizens of Serbia have increasingly engaged in various forms of giving² (donating, volunteering etc.) over the years, thus demonstrating that there still remains an interest in helping to solve issues of public concern.

In order to further understand how past USAID programming has approached this issue, USAID conducted a retrospective evaluation³ of its largest citizen engagement projects from the last 15 years, which highlighted that the initiatives which had positive effects on citizen participation and government responsiveness were those that:

- Focused on changing misconceptions about individual inability to influence policy
- Had frequent and continuous work with communities and their leaders.
- Used local expertise and local activists for community mobilization
- Applied participatory consultative processes and employed approaches that focused on participants learning by doing.
- Assigned new responsibility to citizens.
- Had quick and tangible results.

Further research around citizen engagement also revealed that ordinary citizens are not passive, but are rather selective about their participation. Willingness to get involved to improve one's neighborhood (e.g., through tenants' associations), to support cultural, youth and social activities (e.g., through festivals and community events), and to support specific interest-based initiatives (e.g., business clusters, parent councils) show that citizens engage if they understand the cause and believe in its success, if they have a personal connection to the people performing the action or the ones benefiting from it, and when the issues at hand are seen as urgent and important. Strengthening community initiatives that are able to bring together citizens to address concrete concerns is of crucial importance in re-building citizen faith that their actions can in fact make a difference.

As part of its past civil society programming, USAID has successfully supported a number of local community initiatives and organizations for the purpose of strengthening community engagement and promoting ownership, empowerment, trust and the resolution of locally identified issues. Nevertheless, many of these initiatives and groups are still in nascent form and require further assistance to ensure their sustainability as channels for citizen engagement. We anticipate that further support for these and complementary initiatives, grounded in lessons learned from past programming, can lay the basis for both new and established civil society actors/groups to build up ways to address and garner resources for concerns identified by citizens.

Supporting local citizen engagement can contribute to building trust and cooperation among different actors, thus strengthening the social fabric of local communities and laying a foundation for additional locally sourced and led reform efforts that can have a positive impact on citizen engagement writ large.

2) Funding Areas of Interest

If new and established community initiatives (formal and informal) can provide citizens with more means to address their concerns, this will provide a locally owned set of avenues for identifying, addressing, and financing citizen initiatives. This will in turn provide a clear way for citizens to improve their local communities, will demonstrate the role that civil society can play in this process, and will build community assets and trust that can contribute to Serbia's overall development process.

Thus, USAID is seeking to fund an activity that will strengthen new and established, formal and informal local citizen groups and their efforts to engage other groups and citizens who support positive change in their communities. These may include community foundations, local youth groups, CSOs and other groups with a demonstrated ability to mobilize people and resources to engage with and address specific concerns in their communities in ways that build mutual trust, empowerment and local ownership.

USAID seeks applications that demonstrate the following characteristics:

- The program makes the use of Serbia's existing organizational capacities and resources by working with a wide variety of stakeholders with the interest and ability to contribute to the program objective.
- The program identifies, engages with and builds on already established and/or emerging community level actors and partnerships around Serbia.
- The program benefits citizens and local groups across Serbia and is not primarily focused on Belgrade and other major cities.
- The program focuses on fostering ways to directly engage citizens and communities in setting priorities for local initiatives.
- The program utilizes a 'learning by doing' approach, experimenting with interventions, assessing impact, and adapting and scaling up or down.

USAID aims to fund activities that generate the following results:

- Enhanced engagement of citizens on the local level;

- Increased capacities of local actors to reach out to and engage citizens and other relevant stakeholders;
- Increased number of local partnerships formed;
- Resources to address community needs and priorities successfully mobilized at the local level.

Further recommendations for activity results are welcome and open to consideration.

The following is a list of illustrative areas of programming that could be considered. Other innovative ideas are encouraged.

a) Supporting new and existing formal and informal local engagement groups and initiatives

Examples:

- Assessing existing and mapping new potential local engagement groups in Serbia, their capacities, needs and community standing, for the purpose of informing efforts to more effectively mobilize local resources to address local priorities.
- Improving organizational capacities of existing and potential new local engagement groups to mobilize communities to identify and/or address local priorities.
- Supporting local engagement groups and initiatives in building wider public support for giving in participating communities, through creative advocacy, outreach campaigns and engagement of citizens.
- Promoting sharing of best practices for citizen and resource mobilization among relevant local stakeholders

b) Enhancing local partnerships

Examples:

- Supporting existing or emerging partnerships to achieve citizen-driven local initiatives
- Fostering partnership between CSOs and private sector actors to work together to address community interests and needs.
- Engaging citizens in design, decision making, implementation and evaluation of supported local actions/initiatives
- Supporting implementation of creative outreach initiatives that address identified community challenges and priorities.

c) Enhancing resource mobilization

Examples:

- Assessing community interests and available resources to fund and sustain community-driven initiatives.
- Mobilizing resources for new or existing locally-owned initiative/s through fundraising, matching resources, volunteering etc.
- Promoting transparency of the way that resources are managed to address community priorities by CSOs, the private sector, and/or government at the local level.

- Developing frameworks and testing models for longer term/sustainable resource mobilization at the local level (community, municipal, regional).

The following activities and programs will not be considered for funding:

- Programs that directly engage in support of political parties, individual business or any individual.
- Programs which are partisan or political in nature.
- Any program containing any construction activities.
- Any program involving the purchase of large scale equipment.

END of SECTION I

SECTION II: FEDERAL AWARD INFORMATION

The award under this request for application will be administered and managed by USAID/Serbia.

1. Estimate of Funds Available and Number of Awards Contemplated

Subject to the availability of funds, USAID/Serbia anticipates awarding one Cooperative Agreement in amount of up to $2,000,000 (exclusive of cost share).

2. Start Date and Period of Performance for Federal Awards

The duration of the proposed program should not be longer than 48 months. The anticipated start date for this activity is on or about May 1st, 2018.

3. Type of Award

The award under this RFA will be in the form of a cooperative agreement. Potential applicants should note that USAID policy prohibits the payment of fee/profit to the prime recipient under assistance instruments and that foregone profit does not qualify as cost sharing or leveraging. No construction activities will be financed under assistance agreements resulting from this NOFO.

Please note that any agreement will be between USAID and only one organization as the lead partner, which must be clear from the application.

Per ADS 303.3.11 “Substantial Involvement and Cooperative Agreements,” USAID expects substantial involvement in the following areas:

- USAID will approve specified key personnel of the Recipient.
- USAID will approve the Recipient’s annual work plans and MEL plans. Any significant changes by the recipient to the approved work plan and MEL plan will require additional approval.
- USAID will approve: all recipients and amounts of proposed sub-grants; recommendations for major capacity-building partnerships; and participate on the grant review committees as an ad hoc and non-voting member for all sub-grants under the Agreement.

4. Authorized Geographic Code

The geographic code for this program is 937. For accurate identification of prohibited sources, please refer to 22 CFR 228 and Automated Directive System (ADS) 310 entitled “Source and Nationality Requirements for Procurement of Commodities and Services Financed by USAID.

For accurate identification of prohibited sources, please refer to 22 CFR 228 and Automated Directive System (ADS) 310 entitled “Source and Nationality Requirements for Procurement of Commodities and Services Financed by USAID.

5. Gender Considerations

Promoting gender equality and advancing the status of all women and girls around the world is vital to achieving U.S. foreign policy and development objectives. As part of any proposed program, the applicant must assess and identify gender issues which impact the participation of men and women equally in the participation of this program. Please refer to USAID ADS 205, which can be found at <http://www.usaid.gov/sites/default/files/documents/1870/205.pdf> for more information on integrating this policy into their approach.

END of SECTION II

SECTION III: ELIGIBILITY INFORMATION

Qualified Serbian organizations are eligible to apply. In addition, applicants are encouraged to include non-traditional civil society stakeholders such as professional associations, local initiatives, media, for-profit and not-for-profit organizations as active partners in the proposed activity. Please note that public/government organizations can be part of a partnership, but are not able to apply for, or be party to, the award as either a prime or sub-awardee. However, programs may not be partisan or political in nature.

Given the importance of local knowledge and experience, the primary grant from USAID must be with a Serbian organization, and sub-grants to U.S. organizations may comprise only a small portion (typically, no more than 25%) of the total budget. Additionally, even if the portion of the award to an ineligible entity is less than 25% that will in no way guarantee that the US organization's participation will always be approved. Review of the portion of the award to an ineligible entity shall be made on a fact-specific, case-by-case basis that will entail not just the monetary portion of the total budget but also the substance of the work to be performed by the ineligible entity.

Applicants must have established financial management, monitoring and evaluation processes, internal control systems, and policies and procedures that comply with established U.S. Government standards, laws, and regulations. The successful applicant(s) may be subject to a responsibility determination assessment (Pre-award Survey) by the Agreement Officer. The applicant's accounting and procurement systems, audit issues, and management capability may be reviewed as part of this process. If notified by USAID that a pre-award survey is necessary, applicants must prepare in advance the required information and documents. Prospective NGO applicants should refer to ADS Chapter 303.3.9.1 for additional information about pre-award surveys. A pre-award survey does not commit USAID to make an award to any entity.

Awardees cannot have received more than $5 million from all U.S. Government funding sources over the last five years.

USAID will not accept an application from individuals. All applicants must be legally recognized organizational entities under applicable law. Public International Organizations are not eligible to apply for funding under this program. All applications must be submitted in accordance with ADS 303.

Applicants may only submit one application as a prime applicant.

SECTION IV: APPLICATION AND SUBMISSION INFORMATION

1. Point of contact: See cover page

2. Content and Format of Application Submission

Submit applications strictly according to the instructions below.

Applications must be submitted electronically in two separate volumes via email: (a) technical and (b) cost applications. Email submissions must include the following in the subject line:

“Technical application under 72016918RFA00004, submitted by: [name of organization].”

“Cost application under 72016918RFA00004, submitted by: [name of organization].”

For an application sent by multiple emails, please indicate in the subject line of the email whether the email relates to the technical or cost application, and the desired sequence of multiple emails (if more than one is sent) and of attachments (e.g. "No. 1 of 4", etc.). For example, if your cost application is being sent in two emails, the first email should have a subject line which says: "[organization name], Cost Application, Part 1 of 2".

Our preference is that the technical application and the cost application be submitted as single email attachments, e.g. that you consolidate the various parts of a technical application into a single document before sending them. If this is not possible, please provide instructions on how to collate the attachments. USAID will not be responsible for errors in compiling electronic applications if no instructions are provided or are unclear. All applications received by the submission deadline will be reviewed for responsiveness to the RFA and the application format. No addition or modifications will be accepted after the submission date.

After you have sent your applications electronically, immediately check your own email to confirm that the attachments you intended to send were indeed sent. If you discover an error in your transmission, please send the material again and note in the subject line of the email or indicate in the file name if submitted via grants.gov that it is a "corrected" submission. Do not send the same email more than once unless there has been a change, and if so, please note that it is a "corrected" email.

All applications received by the deadline (as indicated on your invitation letter) will be reviewed for responsiveness to the specifications outlined in these guidelines and compliance with the application format. Applicants are expected to review, understand, and comply with all aspects of this RFA. Failure to do so may result in your application being determined as “non-responsive” and may forego further review.

The application must be signed by the organization’s representative who will also serve as the primary point of contact for their submission, with the authority to negotiate and enter into an award with USAID. Please print or type their name on the Cover Page of the technical and cost applications. Erasures or other changes must be initialed by the person signing the application. Applications signed by an agent must be accompanied by evidence of that agent's authority, unless that evidence has been previously furnished to the issuing office.

Applicants who include data that they do not want disclosed to the public for any purpose or used by the U.S. Government except for evaluation purposes, will:

- 1) Mark the title page with the following legend:

"This application includes data that shall not be disclosed outside the U.S. Government shall not be duplicated, used, or disclosed - in whole or in part - for any purpose other than to evaluate this application. If, however, an award is awarded to this applicant as a result of - or in connection with - the submission of this data, the U.S. Government shall have the right to duplicate, use, or disclose the data to the extent provided in the resulting award. This restriction does not limit the U.S. Government's right to use information contained in this data if it is obtained from another source without restriction. The data subject to this restriction are contained in sheets."

And:

- 2) Mark each sheet of restricted data with the following legend:

"Use or disclosure of data contained on this sheet is subject to the restriction on the title page of this application."

The application must be prepared according to the format set forth below.

A. Technical application format

Technical applications must not exceed 20 single-spaced typed pages, utilizing Times New Roman 12pt font, single spaced, typed on standard 8½" x 11" sized paper with one-inch margins (both right and left) and each page numbered consecutively.

Applicants are advised that any pages exceeding the limit will not be considered for evaluation.

The technical approach must clearly address the factors outlined in the evaluation criteria found in Section V below.

Unless otherwise specified, all application documents must be in English.

Application Contents: The Technical Application must contain the following within the noted page limits:

A single page with the project title and RFA number, the name of the organization applying as the lead or primary applicant clearly identified. Any proposed sub-awardees will be listed separately. In addition, the Cover Page must provide a contact person for the prime applicant, including this individual's name (both typed and his/her signature), title or position with the organization/institution, address, telephone and fax numbers, and email address. State whether the contact person is the person with authority to bind the applicant, and if not, that person will also be listed with contact information. The DUNS numbers of the applicant must also be listed on the cover page.

Listing all parts of the technical application with page numbers and attachments.

Technical Approach (not to exceed 14 pages)

Clearly and thoroughly identify and describe:

- 1) The proposed approach and activities to achieve the objectives of the application as stated in Section I of the RFA, including an implementation timeline;
- 2) The anticipated outputs, outcomes, results and impact relevant to the implementation timeline;
- 3) The roles, relationships, and responsibilities of the core partners as well as the technical qualifications of key personnel. This must include a description of specific partner activities and how they contribute to particular outputs, outcomes, results and intended impacts;
- 4) How the outcomes and results, as well as any activities that need to continue beyond the duration of a USAID award, will be sustainable without continued USAID funding or involvement after the award ends;

The technical application must include a timeline for the application's activities in sufficient detail for USAID to understand expected progress of the proposed activities to achieve the applicant's objectives. This timeline should be the basis for the draft Work Plan to be submitted after award by the successful applicant.

Organizational Capacity and Management Plan (not to exceed three pages, exclusive of CVs)

The applicant must articulate its organizational capacity and experience to plan, implement, and support complex programming and the range of activities in its application. The applicant must make clear the delineation of qualifications, roles, responsibilities, authority, and processes for decision making within the implementation team. An organizational chart must be provided, which is included in the three page limit. The chart shall show the staff reporting lines and relationships between the different positions.

Also, applicants must propose key personnel and all other essential personnel under the program and include CVs for all those individuals. Key personnel are defined as those positions which are central to the technical and administrative management of the program and are subject to USAID's Substantial Involvement per RFA Section II.4. CVs may not be longer than two pages in length each and are not included in the above page limitation.

Draft Activity Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning Plan (not to exceed two pages).

A draft Activity Monitoring Evaluation and Learning Plan shall be submitted with the application and shall include:

- Specific performance indicators (outputs, outcomes, and impact);
- A description of monitoring systems to measure activity progress against overall objectives;

- A plan for data collection and measurement of overall activity outcomes and results, including collection of baseline data, and for the use of data collected by the project to improve program planning and performance; and
- A plan for learning that would help ensure that the AOR and the activity team are able to learn from implementation and adapt the activity accordingly based on received data. This section may identify learning questions that relate to the overall activity theory of change and/ or any related knowledge gaps and ways to allow for adjustments as circumstances change or learning evolves.

B. Cost application format

The Cost Application must be submitted under separate cover from the technical application.

Certain documents are required to be submitted by an applicant in order for the Agreement Officer to make a determination of responsibility. However, it is USAID policy not to burden applicants with undue reporting requirements if that information is readily available through other sources. NOTE: The award will not provide for the reimbursement of pre-award application costs.

The cost application must include all direct costs associated with the implementation and completion of activities, as well as any indirect costs and program costs such as those related to any sub-agreements and/or contracts as detailed below. These amounts are subject to revision depending on availability of funds.

The proposed budget must provide cost estimates for the management of the program (including program monitoring). Applicants will minimize their administrative and support costs for managing the project to maximize the funds available for project activities. Accordingly, those applications with minimal administrative costs may be deemed to offer a "greater value" than those with higher costs for program administration.

The following sections describe the documentation that Applicants for the Assistance award must submit to USAID prior to award. While there is no page limit for this portion, applicants are encouraged to be as concise as possible, but must still provide the following:

i. SF-424 series (found on www.grants.gov):

- SF-424, Application for Federal Assistance
- SF-424A, Budget Information – Non-construction Programs
- SF-424B, Assurances – Non-construction Programs

Cost application must be submitted in accordance with the attached excel spreadsheet, with all cells and formulas visible and unlocked that includes a summary budget (in US dollars) and a detailed/itemized budget (in US dollars). The detailed budget must include:

Costs notes/budget narrative explaining all estimated costs. Please note that the budget narrative must not only express the calculation of the estimate and purpose but also the basis of estimate – the rationale and method used to determine the budgeted cost estimate was fair and reasonable. Explanations should discuss cost components, rather lump costs.

Additional guide for cost application

Identified below are some of the common cost elements in a budget and the required information in the budget and budget narrative.

Salaries

Please provide a separate line item for each proposed individual and identify each by name, title and the level of effort and salary rate. Also include position descriptions for all employees and consultants whose compensation will be charged as a direct cost to the agreement. This information will also be required for sub-recipients. Direct salaries and wages must be proposed in accordance with the applicant's personnel policies. Applicants shall submit salary history for all named staff via the USAID Form 1420 Biodata.

Fringe Benefits

Please provide a breakdown of proposed fringe benefits. This breakdown must include the rate at which the benefit is charged and the base against which it is applied. If the applicant has a fringe benefit rate that has been approved by an agency of the Government, such rate will be used and evidence of its approval must be provided. If a fringe benefit rate has not been so approved, the applicant will propose a rate and explain how the rate was determined. If the latter is used, the narrative must include a detailed breakdown comprised of all items of fringe benefits (e.g., unemployment insurance, workers compensation, health and life insurance, retirement, etc.) and the costs of each, expressed in dollars and as a percentage of salaries. For Serbian local employees, in accordance with the Serbian Law on Salaries and Benefits, it is the amount of 17.9% of the gross salary and it is a liability of the employer.

Travel/Per Diem

Please provide the destination and duration of each trip, the individuals traveling, and a breakdown between the per diem and airfare and the basis for each. The application will indicate the number of trips, domestic and international, and the estimated costs. Specify the origin and destination for each proposed trip, duration of travel, and number of individuals traveling. Per diem must be based on the applicant's normal travel policies (applicants may choose to refer to the Federal Standardized Travel Regulations for cost estimates).

Other Direct Costs

Please provide a breakdown and explanation for all other direct costs (ODCs). This includes communications, report preparation costs, passports and visas fees, medical exams and inoculations, insurance (other than insurance included in the applicant's fringe benefits), equipment (procurement plan for commodities), office rent abroad, etc. The narrative will provide a breakdown and support for all and each other direct costs.

Branding and Marking.

The cost application must incorporate the estimated cost for Branding and Marking. Additional guidance is available in USAID Automated Directive System ADS 320 found at <http://www.usaid.gov/sites/default/files/documents/1868/320.pdf>. Please see attached guide for developing branding strategy and marking plan.

Indirect Costs for Institutions without a Negotiated Indirect Cost Rate Agreement

Institutions, especially local institutions usually do not have a Negotiated Indirect Cost Rate Agreement (NICRA) letter with the US Government. Institutions without NICRAs may either treat all indirect costs as direct costs or may choose to charge a de minimis rate of 10% of modified total direct costs (see 2 CFR 200.414(f)).

Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning Costs

Pursuant to ADS 203.3.5 Monitoring Activities/Implementing Mechanisms, recipients are required to provide in the budget a separate line item for Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning (MEL). The line item must include costs for data collection, analysis, and reporting. This line item will be tracked during implementation of the activity. The applicant will propose to USAID the most cost-efficient and effective way to address this requirement.

Seminars and Conferences

The applicant will indicate the subject, venue and duration of proposed conferences and seminars, and their relationship to the objectives of the program, along with estimates of costs.

Funding Foreign Government Delegations to International Conferences

Funds in this agreement may not be used to finance the travel, per diem, hotel expenses, meals, conference fees or other conference costs for any member of a foreign government's delegation to an international conference sponsored by a public international organization, except as provided in ADS Mandatory Reference "Guidance on Funding Foreign Government Delegations to International Conferences" (found at <http://www.usaid.gov/sites/default/files/documents/1868/350maa.pdf>) or as approved by the Agreement Officer.

Cost Share

The applicant may, but is not required to, propose cost share. Cost sharing or matching means the portion of project costs not paid by Federal (USG) funds. Cost share may include project costs incurred by the Recipient from its own funds, or project costs financed with cash, services, or property contributed or donated to the Recipient from other non-USG sources, including subrecipients.

Cost share becomes a condition of an award when it is part of the approved award budget. Cost sharing is not required for applicants to be eligible to receive USAID funding under this RFA. However, USAID encourages applicants to propose cost sharing to demonstrate their commitment to the proposed activities and to promote sustainability, as appropriate.

For NGO recipient contributions to qualify as cost share, the cost share must be verifiable from the recipient's records. Cost share can be audited. For U.S. entities, cost share is subject to the requirements of 2 CFR 200.306, 2 CFR 700.10, and the Standard Provision, "Cost Sharing (Matching)"; for non-U.S. entities it is subject to the Standard Provision, "Cost Share."

The USAID Mission Agreement Officer will determine whether any proposed cost share will become a condition of the award.

C. Past Performance and Experience (not to exceed 3 page per application)

This section will address the following:

- Brief description of the applicant's organizational history and experience;
- Examples of accomplishments and results in developing and implementing similar programs;
- Relevant experience with proposed approaches;
- Institutional strength as represented by breadth and depth of experienced personnel in program relevant disciplines and areas; and
- Explanation of how lessons learned will be applied in achieving the goals of the program.

Matrix of past performance information

The Applicant must provide a Matrix of all its contracts, grants, or cooperative agreements involving similar or related programs during the past three years. The reference information for these awards must include:

1. The performance location;
2. Award number (if available);
3. A brief description of the work performed;
4. A point of contact list with current telephone numbers, e-mail address, name and title of someone, outside of the Applicant's organization, who supervised/oversaw the activity.

D. Dun and Bradstreet Universal Numbering System (DUNS) Number and System for Award Management (SAM)

Each Applicant is required to provide a valid DUNS number and be registered in SAM before submitting the full application. USAID will not make an award to applicant until the applicant has complied with all applicable DUNS and SAM requirements. If an applicant has not fully complied with the requirements by the time the Federal awarding agency is ready to make a Federal award, the Federal awarding agency may determine that the applicant is not qualified to receive a Federal award and use that determination as a basis for making a Federal award to another applicant.

Additional information at: <https://fedgov.dnb.com> and www.sam.gov. Additional guidance and instructions on registration are attached this RFA.

E. Submission Dates and Times:

- (i) Submission instructions and deadline: See cover Page
- (ii) Questions instructions and deadline: See cover page

F. Funding Restrictions

The following activities and programs will not be considered for funding:

- Programs that directly engage in support of individual political parties or candidates.
- Programs that are partisan in nature.

- Any program containing any construction activities.
- Any program involving the purchase of large scale equipment

USAID policy is not to award profit under assistance instruments. However, all reasonable, allocable and allowable expenses, both direct and indirect, which are related to the agreement program and are in accordance with 2 CFR 200 and/or Standard Provisions for Non-U.S. Nongovernmental Organizations, M1 - Allowable Costs, may be paid under the anticipated award.

2. Certification Regarding Lobbying (22 CFR 227);
3. Prohibition on Assistance to Drug Traffickers for Covered Countries and Individuals (ADS 206, Prohibition of Assistance to Drug Traffickers);
4. Certification Regarding Terrorist Financing;
5. Certification Regarding Trafficking in Persons; and
6. Certification of Recipient
