Terms and Conditions

By taking part in Culture | Smart City Connections: Open Call, participants shall be deemed to have agreed to be bound by the terms outlined below.

1. All participants retain ownership and copyright of their work.
2. By submitting an entry, participants consent to allow the Culture | Smart City project team and any collaborating partners have the opportunity to feature and promote your work as part of an exhibition, and across advertising and marketing channels.
3. By submitting an entry, participants warrant that the submission is not infringing or in violation of any intellectual property rights or proprietary rights of any third party.
4. By submitting an entry, participants agree to indemnify and hold the Culture and Smart City project team harmless from any liability, loss cost and expense (including legal fees) arising from any breach of the foregoing warrants, due to or arising out of the participant's submission materials for this Open Call, or the participant's conduct during and in connection with the exhibition of their work for this Open Call.
5. During the review and shortlisting period, the Culture | Smart City project team will contact those being shortlisted. You must respond within seventy-two (72) hours.
6. For verification purposes, you may be asked to provide the original files of your work and your ID.
7. If you are under 18 years old, we will need to confirm consent from your parent or guardian.
8. Only shortlisted submissions will be contacted. Due to the number of submissions received, it will not be possible to provide commentary or feedback individually.
9. The selection panel's decision is final.
