

LIST OF COMPLEMENTARY DOCUMENTS

The following documents must be uploaded on the online Application Form, according to the different type of applicant entity/organization.

Parties

- An official document proving that the organization is a public or governmental authority/institution from a developing country that is Party to the 2005 Convention on the Protection and Promotion of the Diversity of Cultural Expressions.

Non-governmental organizations (NGOs)

- An official document proving that the entity/organization is non-governmental and non-profit according to national regulations of a developing country that is a Party to the 2005 Convention.

International non-governmental organizations (INGOs)

Applications by INGOs must demonstrate a sub-regional, regional¹ or inter-regional impact. Therefore, INGOs are requested to submit the following documents:

- One letter of support from governmental authorities or public institutions from each of the beneficiary countries, ensuring that the project is relevant and meets the beneficiary's needs and priorities

The INGOs are also required to demonstrate the international character of the organization through the following documents:

- The official document demonstrating legal status as an International NGO;
- An official document showing the list of members and their country(ies) of residence and demonstrating the international membership of the organization (both institutional and individual);
- An official document proving that recent activities (less than 5 years from the application date) have been carried out in several countries around the world.

¹ In the context of the IFCD funding process, regional refers to a group or cluster of countries, not a territory within a single country.

International fund for cultural diversity

Investing in creativity. Transforming societies.

Pro forma invoice

Regardless of the type of applicant, if "equipment and supplies" are foreseen in the Budget (Project Framework), the corresponding pro forma invoice(s) must be provided. Otherwise, these expenses may be excluded from the amount approved for funding.

Letters of support

If the project has implementing partners, please attach, to the extent possible, letters of support indicating the type of contribution the partner will provide to the project.

All complementary documents must be in the language of the application (English or French).

In case the original language used in such documents is neither English nor French, translated documents should be provide in either English or French.

Without these complementary documents, applications will be considered incomplete and non-eligible.
